Policy Termination	The policy shall immediately and automatically terminate on the earliest occurrence of any of the following events: ● The date on which death benefit becomes payable; or ● The date on which refund, if applicable, is settled, in case of cancellation of policy ; or ● The date of maturity; or ● On expiry of revival period, if the policy has not been revived; or ● On payment of free look cancellation amount.

Benefits under the Plan:

Death Benefit

Death Benefit is payable on death of the Life Assured during policy term provided policy is in force as on date of death, the risk has commenced and the "Waiting Period" of 45 days is over. This Policy will cover death due to accident only during the waiting period of 45 days from the date of commencement of risk. This benefit is payable to the nominee or legal heir of the life assured.

In case of death of the life assured other than due to an accident during the waiting period, an amount equal to 100% of all premiums received excluding taxes (Total Premiums Paid including extra premium), if any, shall be paid and the Sum Assured shall not be paid.

"Accidental Death" shall mean death within Waiting Period:

- which is caused by Bodily Injury resulting from an Accident and
- which occurs due to the said Bodily Injury solely, directly and independently of any other causes

Death after the expiry of Waiting Period but before the expiry of policy term:

Sum Assured on death will be paid in lump sum on death of the Life Insured.

Where the sum assured on death for

- Regular and limited premium payment policies is highest of the following:
    - 10 times of the "Annualized premium"
    - 105% of all the premiums paid as on date of death
    - Absolute amount assured to be paid on death
- Single premium payment policies is highest of the following:
    - 125% of the single premium
    - Absolute amount assured to be paid on death

Premiums referred to above shall not include any extra amount chargeable under the Policy due to Underwriting decision and Rider Premium(s), if any.

Maturity Benefit

No maturity benefit is payable under the product.

Surrender Benefit

No surrender benefit is payable under the product. For policy cancellation value, please see the section on non-forfeiture below.

Non-forfeiture Benefit

Policy Cancellation Value

Policy Cancellation Value shall be payable:

- upon the Policyholder applying for the same before the stipulated date of maturity in case of Single Premium Policy.
- upon the Policyholder applying for the same before the stipulated date of maturity or at the end of revival period if the policy is not revived, in case of Limited Premium Payment Policies.

The amount payable shall be as follows:

- For Single Premium:
  The Policy Cancellation Value acquires immediately after receipt of Single Premium and is calculated as follows:
  70% X Single Premium paid X (Unexpired Policy Term/Original Policy Term)
  Single Premium shall be inclusive of extra premium, if any.
- Limited Premium Payment Term (LPPT): 5 and 10 years:
  Policy Cancellation Value acquires if at least two (2) consecutive full years' premiums are paid and is calculated as follows:
  70% X Total Premiums paid X (Unexpired Policy Term/Original Policy Term)
  Total Premiums Paid shall be inclusive of extra premiums, if any.
- No policy cancellation value shall be payable in respect of regular premium policies.

Lapse

If the policyholder discontinues paying premiums before the policy has acquired policy cancellation value as described above, the policy shall lapse at the end of the grace period and all risk cover will cease and no benefits will be payable in case of lapsed policies. The policyholder can revive a lapsed policy as mentioned in the section of revival below.

Few important terms and conditions:

(For other terms and conditions, please refer to the Policy Contract and Benefit Illustration)

- Grace Period:
  A grace period of 30 days from the premium due date will be allowed for payment of yearly and half yearly mode of payment and 15 days for monthly premiums. The policy will remain in force during the grace period. If any premium remains unpaid at the end of the grace period, the policy shall lapse. The policy benefit thereafter would have no further value except as provided under the non-forfeiture provisions.

- Free Look Period:
  The policy holder has a free look period 30 days from the date of receipt of the policy document to review the terms and conditions of the policy and where the policyholder disagrees to any of those terms and conditions, the policy holder has an option to return the policy to the company for cancellation, stating the reasons for his objection. The policy holder shall be entitled to a refund of premium paid subject only to a deduction of a proportionate risk premium for the period of cover and the expenses incurred on medical examination, if any, of the life assured and stamp duty charges.
- Nomination:
  Nomination shall be applicable in accordance with provisions of Section 39 of the Insurance Act 1938 respectively, as amended from time to time.
- Assignment:
  Assignment shall be applicable in accordance with provisions of Section 38 of the Insurance Act 1938 respectively, as amended from time to time.
- Revival of Policy:
  If premiums are not paid within the period of grace the policy lapses. The policy may be reinstated for full benefits, within five years from the date of the first unpaid premium. The reinstatement will be considered on receipt of written application from the policyholder along with the proof of continued insurability of life assured and on payment of all overdue premiums with interest. The reinstatement of the base policy will be effected as per the prevailing board approved underwriting policy (BAUP) of the company. The interest will be charged at a rate declared by the company from time to time.
  The company has a policy on the Revival Interest Rate and the interest rate charged shall be communicated to the policyholder on 1st April of each Financial Year
- Policy loans:
  No loan will be available under this policy
- Suicide Exclusion:
  In case of death due to Suicide within 12 months from the date of commencement of risk under the policy or from the date of revival of the policy or date of addition of rider, as applicable, the nominee or beneficiary of the policyholder shall be entitled to 80% of the total premiums paid till the date of death for non-Single Premium Payment terms and 90% of single Premium Payment term, provided the policy is in force.
  After paying the benefit as stated above, the contract will be terminated and hence no further benefit would be payable.
- Statutory impositions:
  Premiums payable and benefits secured under your policy will be subject to applicable statutory levy, cess and taxes including taxes at the prevailing rates as imposed by the Government from time to time. The Policyholder will be responsible for paying these statutory impositions.

Section 45 of the Insurance Act, 1938 as amended from time to time states that:

(1) No policy of life insurance shall be called in question on any ground whatsoever after the expiry of three years from the date of the policy, i.e. from the date of issuance of the policy or the date of commencement of risk or the date of revival of the policy or the date of the rider to the policy whichever is later.
(2) A policy of life insurance may be called in question at any time within three years from the date of issuance of the policy or the date of commencement of risk or the date of revival of the policy or the date of the rider to the policy, whichever is later, on the ground of fraud:

Provided that the insurer shall have to communicate in writing to the insured or the legal representatives or nominees of the insured the grounds and materials on which such decisions are based.
Explanation I – For the purposes of this sub-section, the expression “fraud” means any of the following acts committed by the insured or by his agent, with the intent to deceive the insurer or to induce the insurer to issue a life insurance policy:

a. the suggestion, as a fact of that which is not true and which the insured does not believe to be true;
b. the active concealment of fact by the insured having knowledge or belief of the fact;
c. any other act fitted to deceive; and
d. any such act or omission as the law specially declares to be fraudulent.

Explanation II – Mere silence as to facts likely to affect the assessment of the risk by the insurer is not fraud, unless the circumstances of the case are such that regard being had to them, it is the duty of the insured or his agent, keeping silence to speak, or unless his silence is, in itself, equivalent to speak.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2) no insurer shall repudiate a life insurance policy on the ground of fraud if the insured can prove that the mis-statement of or suppression of a material fact was true to the best of his knowledge and belief or that such mis-statement of or suppression of a material fact are within the knowledge of the insurer:

Provided that in case of fraud, the onus of disproving lies upon the beneficiaries, in case the member is not alive.

Explanation – A person who solicits and negotiates a contract of insurance shall be deemed for the purpose of the formation of the contract, to be the agent of the insurer

(4) A policy of the life insurance may be called in question at any time within three years from the date of issuance of the policy or the date of commencement of risk or the date of revival of the policy or the date of the rider to the policy, whichever is later, on the ground that any statement of or suppression of a fact material to the expectancy of the life of the insured was incorrectly made in the proposal or other document on the basis of which the policy was issued or revived or rider issued:

Provided that the insurer shall have to communicate in writing to the insured or the legal representatives or nominees of the insured the grounds and material on which such decision to repudiate the policy of life insurance is based:

Provided further that in case of repudiation of the policy on the ground of misstatement or suppression of a material fact, and not on the ground of fraud, the premiums collected on the policy till the date of repudiation shall be paid to the insured or the legal representatives or nominees of the insured within a period of ninety days from the date of such repudiation

Explanation – For the purposes of this sub-section, the mis-statement of or suppression of fact shall not be considered material unless it has a direct bearing on the risk undertaken by the insurer, the onus is on the insurer to show that had the insurer been aware of the said fact no life insurance policy would have been issued to the insured.

(5) Nothing in this section shall prevent the insurer from calling for proof of age at any time if he is entitled to do so, and no policy shall be deemed to be called in question merely because the terms of the policy are adjusted on subsequent proof that the age of the life insured was incorrectly stated in the proposal.

Prohibition of Rebates: Section 41 of the Insurance Act, 1938 as amended from time to time states:

(1) No person shall allow or offer to allow, either directly or indirectly, as an inducement to any person to take or renew or continue an insurance in respect of any kind of risk relating to lives or property in India, any rebate of the whole or part of the commission payable or any rebate of the premium shown on the policy, nor shall any person taking out or renewing or continuing a policy accept any rebate, except such rebate as may be allowed in accordance with the published prospectuses or tables of the insurer:

(2) Any person making default in complying with the provisions of this section shall be liable for a penalty which may extend to ten lakh rupees.

Tax Benefits: You may be entitled to certain applicable tax benefits on your premiums and Policy benefits. Please note that all the tax benefits are subject to tax laws prevailing at the time of payment of premium or receipt of benefits by you. It is advisable to seek an independent tax consultation.
